SMALL-BOAT PILIKIA TO BE SETTLED FRIDAY

There will be a meeting of the Honolulu Yacht Club on Friday night at the residence of A. Lyle, at half-past seven, to decide the winner of last Sunday's race. This matter is agitating the minds of the small-boat sailors and everybody seems to have a different opinion on the subject.

The course was changed before the start, on account of the first race having been a drifting match and having delayed the game so long. It was apparently decided mutually between the starters to cut out the bell buoy on the last leg out to sea.

Everybody understood this except Luther Hough, who kept on after passing the spar buoy. This naturally put him out of the race. The question to be decided is whether the first or second course goes as official. The changing of a course is always very unsatisfactory and should never be resorted to unless the judges make sure of personally notifying each contestant.

Doctor Sanford writes to say that he would like to give a prize for sea-weeds and suggests a very appropriate one—a year's subscription to the Rudder, the well-known yachting monthly.

Doctor Sanford also states that he has a letter from Pete Baron, who is now in San Francisco. Pete will come back to Honolulu as soon as he can see his way clear, and, in the mean while, wishes to be remembered to all his friends.

FREDDIE WELSH TOO MUCH FOR SUMMERS

LONDON, November 8.—Freddie Welsh today gained the undisputed right to the lightweight championship of England by defeating Johnny Summers in a twenty-round battle before the National Sporting Club in this city.

From the very start there was no question of the victor's superiority, as he outgeneraled his foe at every turn.
Summers' plunging tactics earned him the plaudits of the spectators, but they were no compensation for the stunning blows dealt out to him by his cleverer adversary. Welsh fought a well-planned battle, timing his blows correctly and landing repeatedly.

Welsh forced the milling from the outset, but Summers was ever ready for Welsh's attack. It was the case of a slugging pitted against a ring general, and the latter won. Welsh outpointed Summers all the way and in the first ten rounds piled up enough points to gain him the verdict. Welsh fought cautiously at the start and finished with a burst of speed that almost carried Summers off his feet. The winner finished that last round stronger and faster than the first.

In the early rounds much clinching prevailed. Summers was the chief offender. The referee warned both repeatedly, and the last rounds were free of any holding by either of the contestants. Welsh ruled a slight favorite in the betting.

Lord Lonsdale was gratified by Welsh's excellent showing, and presented the victor with a gold be-di-amonded belt emblematic of the title.
Welsh's manager will immediately begin negotiations for a battle with Battling Nelson, the world's lightweight champion.

SPORT NOTES.

Saturday's intercollegiate football game will be College of Hawaii vs. Punanoh. The former has already been decisively beaten by the Punahou team, but has been practising hard, and, since its victory over High School of last Saturday, has hopes of doing much better this time.

A feature of the games at the Athletic Park last Sunday was the presentation of the W. C. Peacock & Co. cup to the Portuguese Athletic Club, the winners of the Oahu Juniors' series.
Will Harris made the presentation in the absence of Mayor Fern.

The match race between Lady Bernice and Lizzie Moore will be run at Waipahu next Sunday at two o'clock.
Jockey Ferreira has his Lady Bernice nicely tuned up and will be there, so he states, with the goods. There will be four other races as well as the big match race.

The regular annual meeting of the Healani Yacht and Boat Club will be held in the clubhouse tonight at half past seven. All members are requested to be present.

Around the Police Station

Sixty Days for Velthoff.

Velthoff, the man who made rude remarks about the King of England and then assaulted a sailor from the British steamer Komara, a week ago on the King's birthday, got his yesterday from Judge Andrade, when he was sent up for sixty days to think over the question of whether it is wise to insult people of other nations who are celebrating some day that corresponds to the Fourth of July.

He was arrested at the time and was let loose on $25 bail. He forfeited his bail but a bench warrant was issued for him and he was taken back to the jug. The assault was of such an unprovoked nature that the judge sent him up for two months to cool his heels and learn some better manners.

Chinese Gamblers Let Go.

The Chinese gamblers who were arrested after Apana's famous raid, during which he climbed up the waterpipe to the second story, were dismissed yesterday morning by Judge Andrade.
Their twenty-five dollars bail was returned to them and they wandered out of the building with joy in their hearts and smiles on their faces. Andrade stated that there was not sufficient evidence to convict them and Charlie Chilingworth was their attorney.

Kato Is Charged.

Kato, the Japanese who was arrested recently for stabbing a fellow countryman in Kalihi, was definitely charged with assault with a deadly weapon yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Rose. He will be brought up on the charge today.

Robinson Took Meat.

Robinson, the negro who was held for investigation on a charge of having done a little burgling of meat from an old Hawaiian couple, was charged on the books yesterday as the police now have sufficient evidence to warrant such.

MEN'S LEAGUE WILL MEET NEXT MONDAY

The Men's League of Central Union church will meet to organize for the year Monday evening, November 22, at the supper hour. There will be a short business session, and then the executive committee has a matter to present to the league that they think should enlist the interest of every man in Honolulu.

The league extends a general invitation to men to be present and to join.

The executive committee is as follows: J. P. Cooke, chairman; W. F.
Dillingham, vice chairman; Edwin O.
Hall, secretary; Richard A. Cooke, treasurer; C. H. Atherton, A. L. C. Atkinson, W. A. Bowen, W. A. Bryan, A.
L. Castle, A. B. Clarke, A. A. Ebersole, Chas. R. Frazier, P. L. Horne, Abram
Lewis, Jr., W. A. Love, P. J. Lowrey, J. A. Rath, Doremus Scudder, Ed Towse, Geo. Waterhouse, P. L. Weaver, J. A.
Wilder.

HAWAIIAN FORESTER AND AGRICULTURIST

The Hawaiian Forester and Agriculturist for October is off the press and contains a number of features that will be of interest to its readers. The articles published include "Reclamation and Hawaii," by W. C. Mendenhall, the underground water expert of the United States Geological Survey—a paper read before the Social Science Association of Honolulu; a resume of Director Wilcox's address on "Cotton Prospects in Hawaii," before the chamber of commerce; "The Proper Use of Water in Irrigation," an address by Samuel Fortier at the National Irrigation Congress, and the routine reports of the Board of Agriculture and Forestry.

DO IT NOW.

Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. In fully nine cases out of ten the attack is simply rheumatism of the muscles due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism, neither of which require any internal treatment.
The free application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm is certain to give quick relief. Try it. For sale by all dealers.
